Dear Mr. Mehrens:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) FOIA request (GSA-2015-000712), dated April 23, 2015, in which you requested "records identifying the following information for those serving as full-time "official-time," personnel, i.e., those working full time for an exclusive representative (Union) in dealing with the GSA regarding terms and condition of employment:

1. Name;
2. Agency or Department;
3. Present and past position titles and occupational series from January 1, 2014 and after;
4. Present and past grades from January 1, 2014 and after;
5. Present and past annual salary rates (including performance awards or bonuses, incentive awards, merit pay amount, Meritorious or Distinguished Executive Ranks, and allowances and differentials) from January 1, 2014 and after; and
6. Present and past duty stations (includes room numbers, shop designations, or other identifying information regarding building or places of employment)."

Please find enclosed the information responsive to your request. However, GSA is withholding the home addresses of two employees that work from home in accordance with the sixth FOIA exemption, 5 USC § 552 (b)(6). Exemption 6 protects information about individuals in "personnel...and similar files" when the disclosure of such information "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy."
